

Travel RN – Telemetry (Rapid Response)

Description

Telemetry patients don't wait, and neither should you. As a Travel RN in Rapid Response, you're the first line when things go sideways. You'll monitor, intervene, and stabilize patients who need immediate attention — all while enjoying the flexibility and high pay of travel nursing. With Triage Staffing, you get the assignments, support, and perks you deserve.

?? At a Glance

Detail
Info

Estimated Pay

$45 – $60/hr (varies by location & experience)

Location

Various hospitals nationwide — travel assignments

What You'll Do

Monitor telemetry, rapid response interventions, patient assessments, documentation

Requirements

Active RN license, telemetry/critical care experience, rapid response familiarity

Perks

Housing reimbursement, travel pay, flexible assignments, benefits

?? What You'll Do

- Monitor patients via telemetry, detect changes in condition early.
- Respond quickly to rapid response calls and critical events.
- Administer interventions and coordinate with physicians/nursing teams.
- Maintain accurate, timely documentation for patient safety and compliance.
- Adapt to different units, hospitals, and patient populations.

?? What You Bring

- Current RN license in the state(s) you'll work.
- Experience in telemetry, critical care, or rapid response nursing.
- Strong assessment, critical thinking, and emergency response skills.
- Excellent communication and teamwork abilities.

Employment Type

Full-time, Contractor

Hiring organization

Triage Staffing

Job Location

Miami, FL, USA

Base Salary

$ 2,500 - $ 3,500

- Flexibility — every assignment may bring new challenges and protocols.

?? Why Triage Staffing?

- Nationwide travel assignments with competitive pay.
- Housing and travel reimbursements so you can focus on patients.
- Flexibility to pick assignments that fit your life.
- Opportunity to gain diverse experience and strengthen your skillset.

?] Ready to Save Lives on the Move?

- Update your resume highlighting telemetry or rapid response experience.
- Be prepared to discuss critical interventions you've performed.
- Apply through Triage Staffing or DamnJobs — your next assignment could start fast.
- Explore similar roles: Travel RN – ICU, Travel RN – Step-Down, Travel RN – Critical Care.